

A nature-lover's haven, the lush Gamtoos Valley, situated at the foot of the Hanekam (Cock's Comb) Mountain, is the undiscovered jewel of the Eastern Cape, captivating visitors with untouched beauty and warm country hospitality.

Its name is a mouthful, but so is the experience visitors can indulge in when visiting this haven in the Gamtoos Valley.

We look forward to welcome you to Nikalandershoek, a working citrus farm nestled on the banks of the Gamtoos River, just 3,5km from Patensie.

A rustic farm venue for any function, wedding, conference - can seat 120 guests, plus a petit chapel!
